

"As members of the Washington University community, we are all responsible for maintaining the highest ethical standards in our community and our professions, and for complying with all relevant laws and regulations."

Mark S. Wrighton, Chancellor

"Each individual conducting research should uphold the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct. We are committed to providing information, tools and services to help further that standard."

Theodore J. Cicero, Ph.D., Vice Chancellor for Research

"Washington University is committed to the highest ethical and professional standards of conduct as an integral part of its mission, the promotion of learning. To achieve this goal, the University relies on each community member's ethical behavior, honesty, integrity, and good judgment. Each community member should demonstrate respect for the rights of others. Each community member is accountable for his/her actions." - from the Washington University Code of Conduct
